Personal Profile:

Being a special mom my passion is to work for children with special needs and also to empower special need parents to understand their children better & build a relationship of trust and affection with their child. Teaching parents the importance of playing with their child thus creating a healthy & holistic environment. To connect with children and to motivate them positively without judging I integrate play therapy strategies in my sessions of special education & Avaz. Play therapy strategies helps me to get the required attention of the child and build a special bond between the child & me, which enhances my overall work with them.
